

Current Dengue Situation and Special Mosquito Control Week

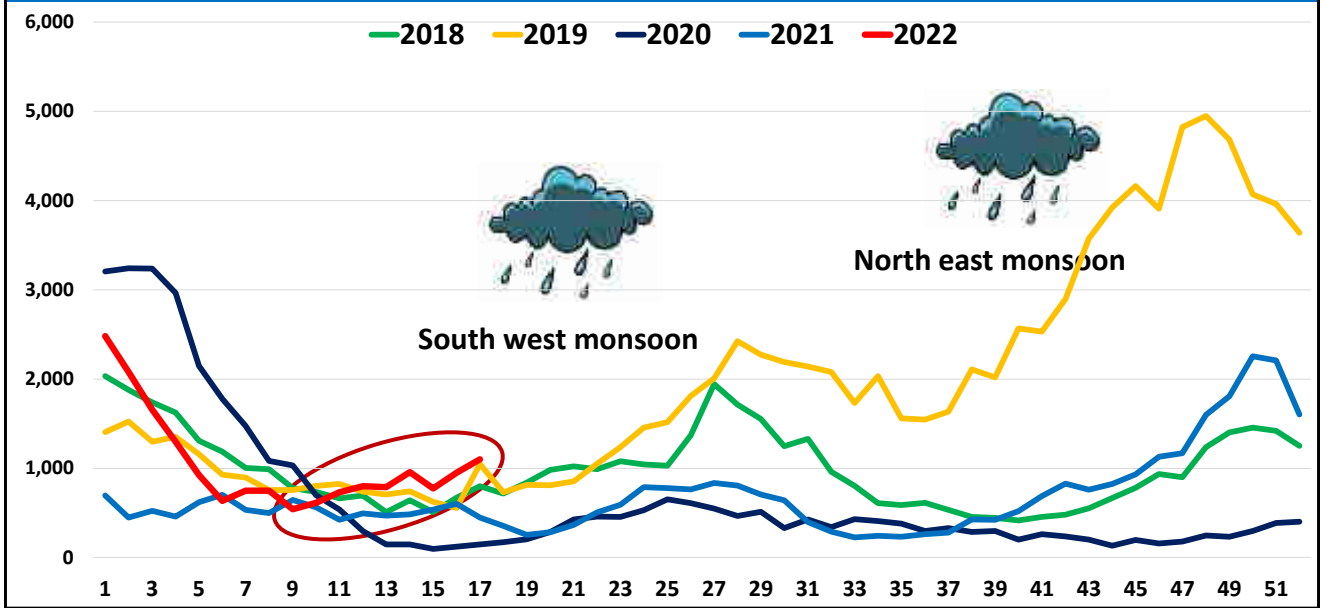

National Dengue Control Unit
Ministry of Health

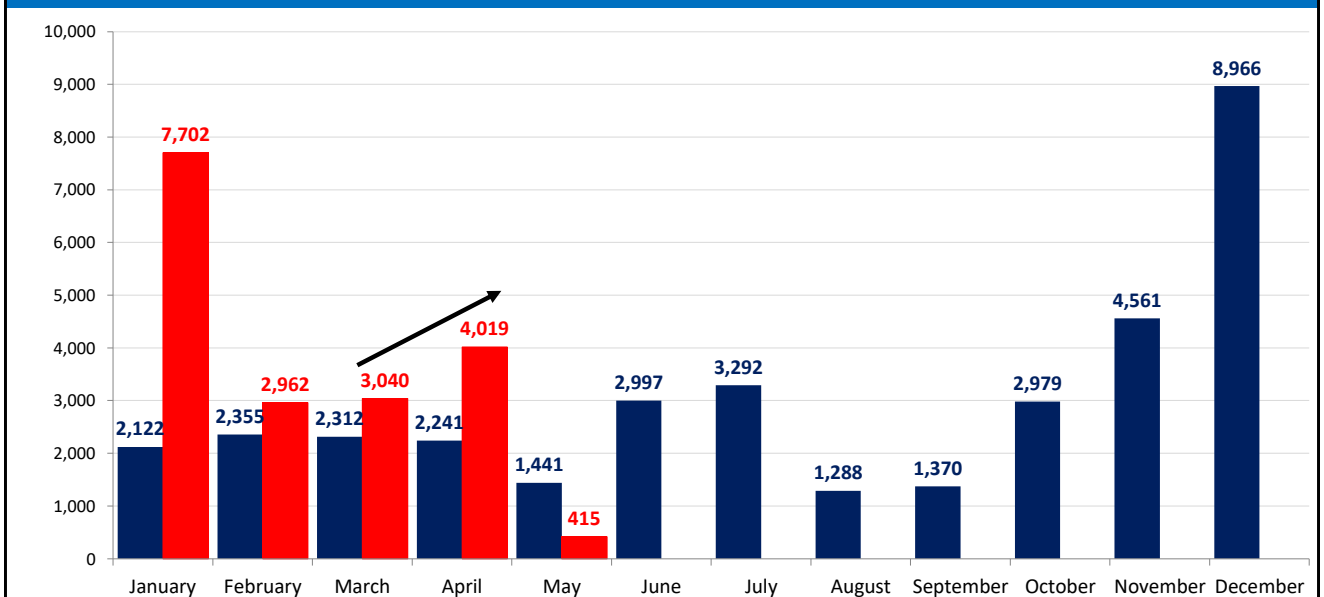

Trends of Dengue Patients and Case Fatality Rate: 2001-2022

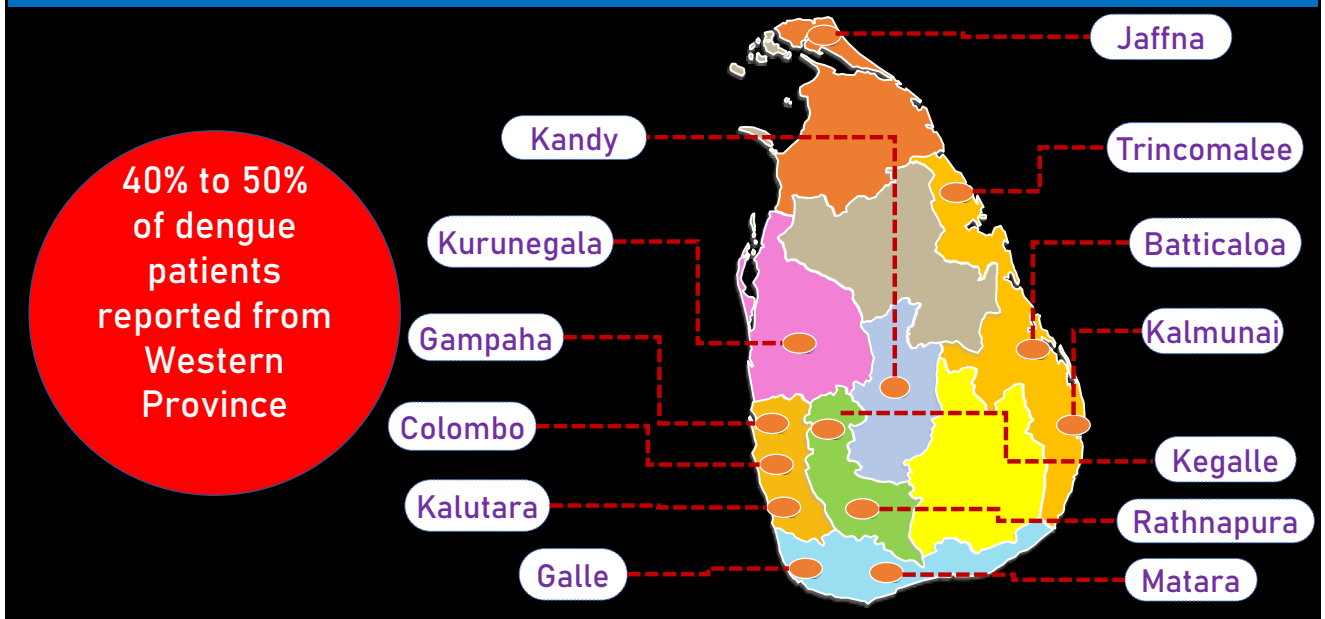

Seasonality - Weekly Reporting of Dengue cases 2018 - 2021

Comparison of reported Dengue patients in 2021 and 2022

Dengue High Risk Districts in Sri Lanka

Plan of Special Mosquito Control week

- From 18th to 24th May 2022
- 20 districts in the country (except Polonnaruwa, Vavuniya, Mullaitivu, Kilinochchi and Nuwaraeliya)
- Cover 49 Priority High Risk (PHR) MOH areas and 99 High Risk (HR) MOH areas
- In PHR MOOH 18th to 24th (22nd Sunday – “Shramadana” campaign)
- In HR MOOH 18th to 22nd (22nd Sunday – “Shramadana” campaign)
- In PHR MOOH – 15 teams/ day
- In HR MOOH – 10 teams/ day

Number of PHR and HR MOH areas conducting SMCW in each province

Province	No. of PHR MOH areas	No. of HR MOH areas
Western	29	18
Central	3	13
Southern	3	11
Northern	1	10
Eastern	4	20
North western	4	10
North central	0	2
Uva	1	5
Sabaragamuwa	4	10
Total	49	99

Intersectoral Collaboration during Special Mosquito Control Week

- Human resource for premise inspection and source reduction campaigns- Possible involvement of disaster management village committees
- Coordination and collaboration between Asst. Directors of DMC and REE of Health on logistics (e.g., transport facilities for field teams)
- Public awareness material dissemination through networks of Ads ,DMC
- Collaboration for 'Shramadana Campaigns' in PHR MOHs on 22nd May 2022

